Rebecca Bowden

Master's degree, Applied Theatre

Loughborough University

Bachelor of Arts (BA), Drama

Rebecca is the founder of Unlock Drama which delivers drama projects to our residents to unlock life skills that can be transferable in day-to-day life and can be applied in social situations, training or employment.

Engaging with drama opens many doors for participants, reliant as it is on developing core interpersonal skills such as communication, leadership, team-building.

It also raises participants' confidence and self-esteem which are all key attributes in life. Rebecca's creative impact hopes that participants will become valued individuals in any given community.
